

CASE FILE: 001

The Morning of the lost child
by Ben

Last summer, I went to an adventure camp with my friend Flo. The camp was in a big forest, we were camping there. Near our campsite was a river, the water was very cold.

One morning Flo and I
I woke up and saw that our roommate
wasn't there anymore.

A few minutes later we ran to our guides and asked them if they had seen Max. But they didn't know where he was.

MID-MORNING:
FULL CAMP SEARCH

After breakfast, all the people at the camp were looking for Max, but nobody could find him. We didn't know what to do.

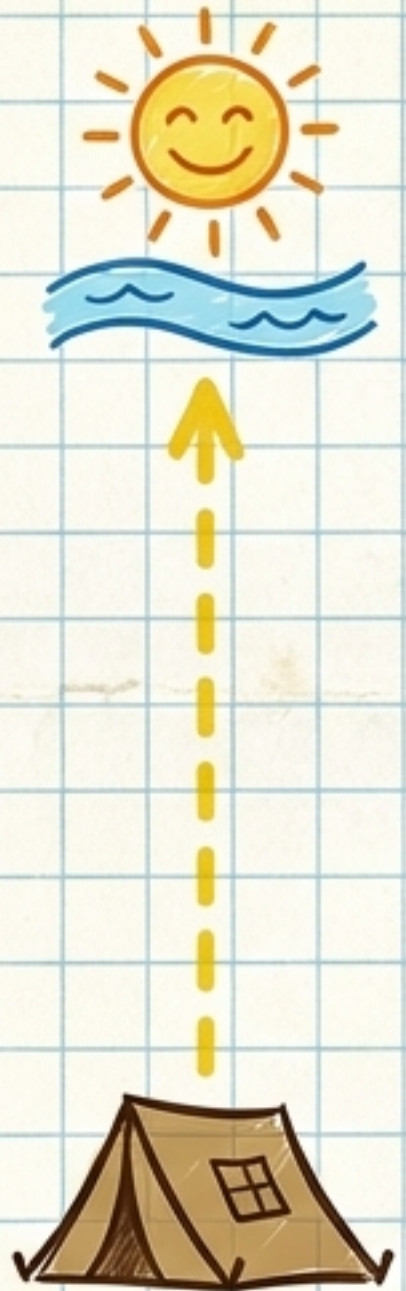

At midday Flo and I went to the police station with Sarah, one of the guides.

THERE WE SAW MAX! THAT'S NOT A JOKE. HE SAT ON A BENCH IN THE POLICE STATION.

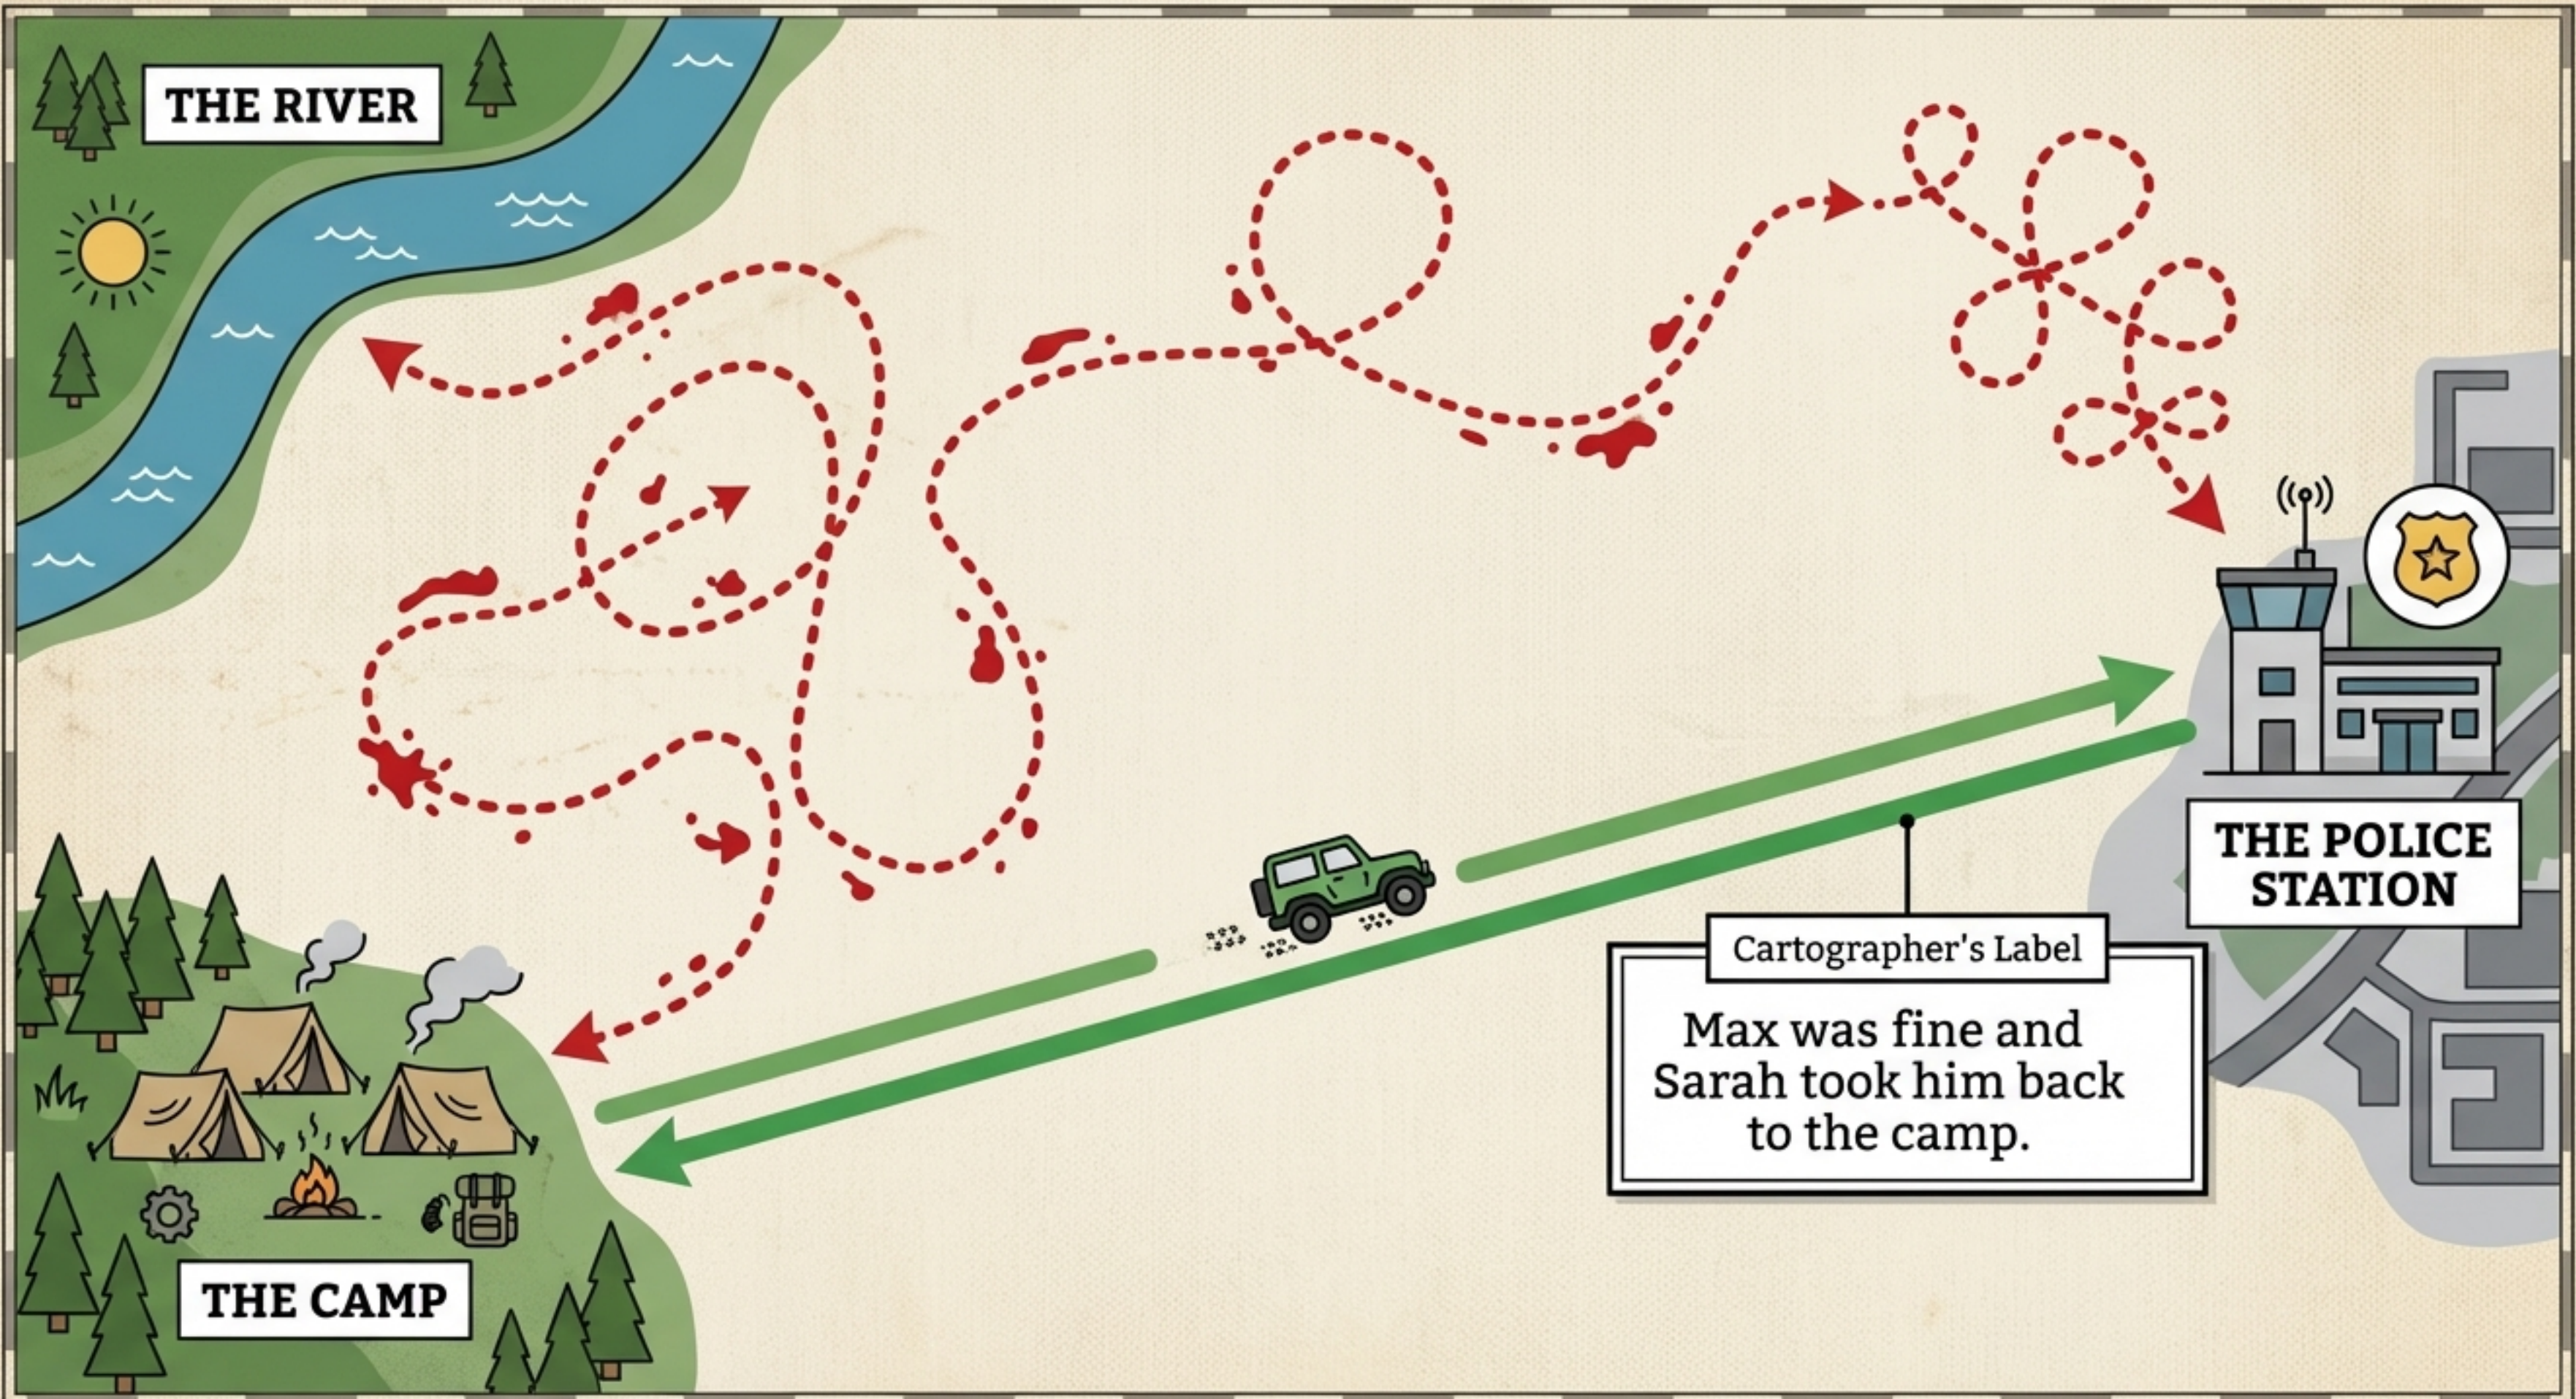

INTENT

REALITY

The boy said that he wanted to go for a short walk to the river, but he ended up in the police station. He just got lost.
