WE ARE FREERIDERS

A wide-angle photograph of a snowy mountain range under a clear blue sky. In the center, a person is skiing down a slope. Large, bold, white text with a black outline is superimposed over the middle of the image.

THIS WINTER I WENT ON A FREERIDE CAMP IN SWITZERLAND WITH MY BROTHER.

WE STAYED AT A HOTEL NEAR THE GONDOLA STATION.

WE SAW THE BEST FREERIDERS.

THEY MADE

VERY COOL

TRICKS.

On Monday we built a big jump over the river.

My friends and I made a 360

but unfortunately one freerider
broke his leg.

On Thursday we learnt new tricks with our coaches.

It was great.

I'd like to take part in the camp again.
