

THE BEACH CAMP

by Nele

LAST SUMMMER

I went to Italy with my best friend Sophia. We stayed in a hotel near the sea. The weather was so nice.

You could do so many things there. We played so many games. Every day we swam in the sea and sat around the campfire.

THE MAGIC OF THE DEEP

In the evening Sophia and I and some new friends of the camp went for a short walk. The water in the sea was so clear and beautiful. Suddenly we saw a blue whale and dolphins.

Everything was cool
rules. We had to go to bed at ten o'clock.
And we had to help
in the kitchen.

An underwater scene with four dolphins swimming in clear blue water. Sunlight filters through the surface, creating a bright, shimmering effect at the top of the frame. The dolphins are positioned around the central text, swimming in various directions.

But the last day was the best day. There we went swimming with dolphins. It was so cool.

*That was the best summer camp
I've ever been to.*
